to the faint dry sound

like steps of wandering ghosts

the leaves, frost-crisped, break from the trees

and fall.

season of mists and mellow fruitfulness,
close bosom-friend of the maturing sun;
to bend with apples the moss'd cottage-trees,
and fill all fruit with ripeness to the core;
to swell the gourd, and plump the hazel shells
with a sweet kernel; to set budding more,
and still more, later flowers for the bees, until they think warm days will never cease,
for summer has o'er-brimm'd their clammy cells.

nature's first green is gold,

her hardest hue to hold,

but only so an hour.

then leaf subsides to leaf.

to fling my arms wide

in some place of the sun,

to whirl and to dance

till the white day is done.

then rest at cool evening

beneath a tall tree

while night comes on gently,

dark like me—

that is my dream!

listen to the silence–

new life is stirring,

new dreams are on the wing,

new hope is being born.

announced by all the trumpets of the sky, arrives the snow, and, driving o'er the fields,
seems nowhere to alight: the whited air hides hills and woods, the river, and the heaven,
and veils the farm-house at the garden's
end.
the sled and traveler stopped, the cour-ier's feet
delayed, all friends shut out, the house-mates sit around the radiant fireplace, enclosed in a tumultuous privacy of storm.

winter dark comes early

mixing afternoon

and night.

soon

there is a comma of a moon.

and each street light

along the way

puts its period

to the end of day.

I'm nobody! Who are you?

Are you nobody, too?

Then there's a pair of us—don't tell!

They'd banish us, you know.

The day was a year at first

When children ran in the garden;

The day shrank down to a month

When the boys played ball.

The day shrank down to an hour

When old men limped in the garden;

The day will last forever

When it is nothing at all.

a light exists in spring

not present on the year

at any other period,

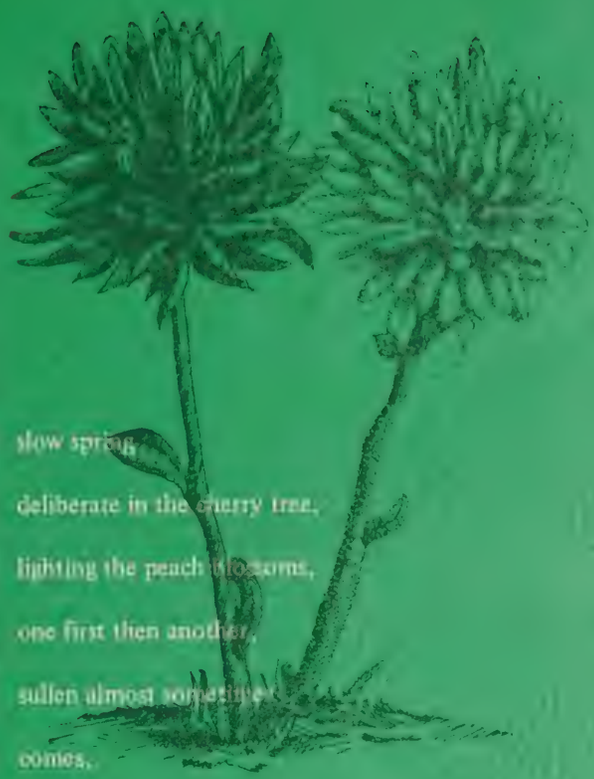
when march is scarcely here.

a color stands abroad

on solitary hills

that science cannot overtake,

but human nature feels.



slow spring
deliberate in the cherry tree,
lighting the peach blossoms,
one first then another,
sullen almost sometimes comes,
delicately through the thaws of snow
to scatter
daisies like drifting flaws
of sunlight on these winter hills.

during that summer

when unicorns were still possible;

when the purpose of knees

was to be shined;

when shiny horse chestnuts

were puffed in green lizard silence

while straddling thick branches

far above and away

taking care of business

The freshmen began their new year by electing class officers, and set to work immediately to catch up with the other classes. The upperclassmen, who had elected all their officers at the end of the preceding year, had a considerable headstart on the freshmen. Finding that innovative money-making ideas are hard to come by, the frosh stuck to the basics: car washes and bake sales, of course. These events were successful in themselves due to the spirit, enthusiasm, and cooperation of the freshmen class. In doing this, they proved to the upperclassmen that newcomers or not, they were getting right down to business.

As freshmen began high school they found Madison to be very different from the Intermediate schools. Students soon realized that they were responsible for their actions, and success was in their own hands. They were discovering the importance of working hard each year, to insure a good grade average.

Because of the variety of electives and the new freedom of selecting their own courses, frosh could prepare for their future fields. However, since most freshmen were unsure of where they were heading, the majority chose the basic courses, including English, history, math, science, and gym. For those desiring to develop career interests and broaden personal enjoyment, such clubs as Yearbook Staff, Heritage Staff, Future Teachers of America, International Relations Club, Language Clubs, and various athletics are among the many available.

This year, the freshmen proved to be much more than float-building amateurs by teaming together and constructing an exceptional Homecoming float. Using the theme "Science Fiction," they professionally created a colorful and imaginative robot who vigorously swatted at the Herndon Hornets surrounding him. Bearing the slogan "Strike 'Em Dead," the float received the first place prize, much to the dismay of the seniors, who must depart from Madison never having the thrill of winning the Homecoming Competition.

First Row: Mike McNulty, Dave Shaw, Neil Sullivan, Mark Merrell, Ricky Graber, Chris Polk, Craig Shumway, Andy Stickel, Brian Robeson, Billy Kidwell. Second Row: Dave Denisar, Mike Briggs, Joe Spiro, Mike Jones, Donnie Cooke, Frank Wilkinson, Phil Luebbert, Pete Jadick, Charley Briggs, Mark Roberts,. Third Row: Mike Shaughnessy, Ronnie Cooke, Cary McMichael, Joe Harpe, John Burroughs, Mike Wanlass, Pete Kattman, Jim Stuart, Ricky Lipscomb, Bob Civilikas, Joe Linza, John Trimble. Fourth Row: Mark Brower, Larry Jones, Scott Davis, Dave Stableford, Mark Schramm, Bobby Brower, Kevin Buzzell, Chuck Hutchison, Pat Ryan, Jim Cole, Pete Krouse, John Gambill. Fifth Row: Dave Workman, Jim Stage, Tom Nixon, Tom Grider, Skip Mader, Melvin (Mellow) Taylor, Dave Newcome, Jeff Roman, Bob Bailey, Marty Bushman, Dave Cohen, Jim Cronin, Herbie Hecht.

The Madison Warhawk Varsity Football team, under the direction of Coach Chuck Sell, completed the regular season undefeated going 9-0-1 and were 1-1 in Regional playoffs. En route to five shutouts over Chantilly, Groveton, McLean, Lee and Langley the team scored 251 points while giving up only 49 points. They were ranked 7th in the Metro area. There were five broken records this season. The first was that Coach Sell has never had an undefeated season in 27 years and Madison has never had an undefeated season. Plus, seven of the Madison players made All-District and two made All-Metro. The last record was the five shut-outs. The seven players who made All-District are Marty Bushman, Pat Ryan, Herbie Hecht, Kevin Buzzell, Bobby Brower, Bob Bailey, Ricky Graber and Mark Merrell and the two who made All-Metro are Bobby Brower and Ricky Graber. In the first Regional game, the Warhawks beat a determined Falls Church team 23-21, but were downed by pass-oriented Robinson 38-14. Congratulations to Coach Sell and the Varsity team for an excellent season and good luck next year.

During a game, players listen intently to Mr. LaFever as he discusses defensive strategy.

Near the end of their seventh victory, players glance at the scoreboard.

jv remains undefeated

This year the JV Football squad had an excellent season remaining undefeated, 8-0, and continuing its undefeated string to 16-0 over the past years. Although many of the players may be moving up to Varsity, hopes are for another successful season next year.

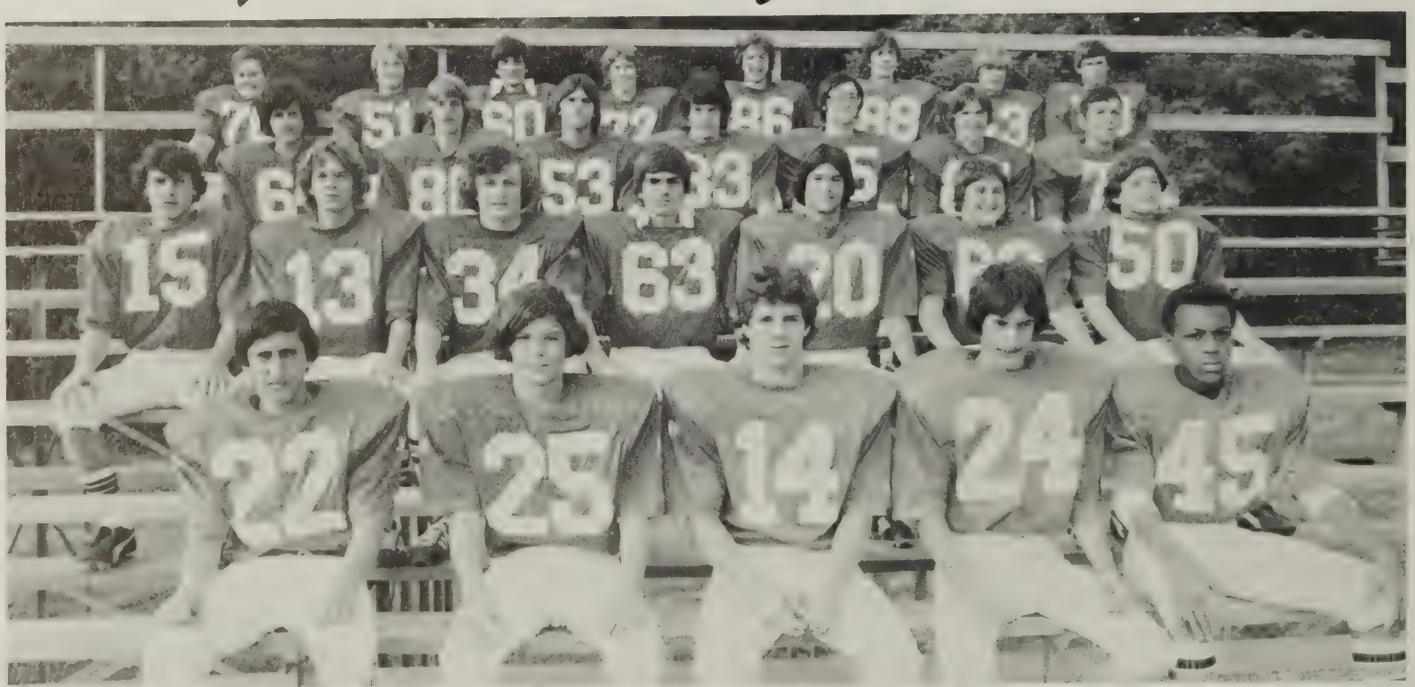
freshmen have good season



This year the Freshmen Football team had a good season compiling a 6-0-0 record. There were outstanding players on offense and defense and many players look promising for the future.

This year the Madison Cross Country team had a good season going 4-1, placing third in the District meet and tenth in Regionals. In the Fairfax County meet the Warhawks placed ninth out of 22. The team also ran well in outside meets, placing third in Division at Palotti Invitational, fifth in Division I at the Georgetown Invitational, and running in the William and Mary invitational. The team has good depth and many JV runners look promising. Good luck to Coach Moss and the team next year.

The Varsity and j.v. field hockey teams endured months of hard work and tough competition. This year the Junior Varsity team consisted of many new members. The only returning players were Diane Holmes and Karen Peters. This was a season for gaining the experience and knowledge needed for future success.

It's Academic team members Tom Brooke, Jim Manderson, and Captain Jon Rak, placed a close second in the September meet against DeMatha and Loudoun Valley. Madison dominated the match, but lost, 380 to 400, in the final seconds when DeMatha took the tie breaking question. Loudoun Valley, with 230 points, dropped out of the struggle for first place by the second round and never regained its momentum. Good things must come to those who wait, since, after nearly two hours of delay at the WRC studio, Madison produced its best finish in years.

comedy wears the crown

The Miss Madison Pageant, sponsored by the Future Homemakers of America Club, was held Saturday night, October 8. Each of the 12 contestants performed a talent and answered an impromptu question. After great suspence, the judges chose Debbie Simpson as Miss Madison 1977. Debbie performed an original jazz routine to "New York, New York". The runners-up were Lisa Rentrop, who gave a dramatic interpretation from "Anne of a Thousand Days", Kris Moen, who sang "Morning has Broken" and accompanied herself on the piano. Cathy Cornils showed a slide presentation of original photographs entitled "Life in Sight and Sound" Pam Lewis, the fourth runner-up, sang "Fire and Rain". Laura Wilkins, chosen Miss Congeniality, sang "The Greatest Love of All". Masters of Ceremonies, Mark Legan and Sue Spencer, kept the theme of Comedy throughout the contest by performing original dialogues and the skit "Who's on First" by Abbott and Costello.

With Science Fiction as the theme, Madison's Homecoming weekend was a success. Despite a Saturday afternoon "delay of game", the Warhawks beat the Herndon Hornets, 24-14.

Lisa Ingram reigned over the Homecoming festivities as the 1977 Homecoming Queen. Teri Oechsle and Kay Taylor were the Senior princesses. Evelyn Valetich represented the Junior class and Janice Boyd, the Sophomore princess and Katie Aldridge, the Freshman princess completed the 1977 court. Carol Macarski, last year's winner, presented Lisa the crown after Mr. Felton and Suzy Madden announced the winner.

The Freshman class won the float competition with their mobile robot. There was a three way tie for the Creativity award between the Freshman class, the Senior's Alchemist and the Sophomore's King Kong. The Band and the Madison Club also entered floats, but an extra night of rain ruined their chances for winning in the half-time competition.

homecoming enters the twilight zone

Saturday night, October 15, the Homecoming dance was held in the Madison cafeteria. Having beaten the Herdon Hornets less than five hours earlier, the Warhawks and their supporters were in a festive mood. The SGA sponsored the dance, providing the refreshments and decorations for what was considered one of the finest dances in years. Tapwater Sparkle provided the music for the many students and alumnae who celebrated the Victory.

do you know where i can buy a gong?

The first annual Gong Talent Show was held on Saturday, October 29, in the Madison Auditorium. Sponsored by the Madison Orchestra, the Gong Show consisted of 18 scheduled acts and assorted special treats. Sandy Siemens acted as Master of Ceremonies for the event and faculty members, Nancy Leonard and Robert Mullin, judged the talents along with the ad-libs of the esteemed student judge, Mark Legan. Greg Buckis placed first, winning fifty dollars for playing "Toccata" Khachaturian on the piano. Steve Dressler and his Unicycle split the twenty-dollar second prize, and Holly and Kim Popple with Bill Nuhn won the third prize of ten dollars for their rendition of "Dance With Me". The points awarded to Greg and Bill were equal, causing the judges to set the precedent of choosing the winner. Along with the judged acts, the Thoreau Intermediate School Chorus directed by Mrs. Janice Siemens performed a square-dance musical number, members of the Orchestra told the First Fairy Tale, the Unknown Comic told little jokes, Mark Cohen received a birthday pie in the face and many of the Gong Show regulars made guest appearances. The esteemed gong was gonged only 3 times the entire night.

Mr. Felton completes his second year

Mr. George Felton has completed his second successful year as the principal of James Madison High School. As a teacher at Luther Jackson and Woodson, and as an assistant principal at Marshall, Mr. Felton has had a lot of experience and thinks "it's good to get arround–go to different schools." He says, however, that he is satisfied with Madison and would like to stay here until he retires.

Mr. Felton plans to continue the back-to-basics movement and full day programs next year. Mr. Felton hopes there will be "an increase in involvement, although I think it's good now, I hope it will be better in the future."

"Madison is a fine school," says the principal, "a lot of spirit and pride here . . . friendly for the most part." He adds, "I feel as though I've been here longer than just two years. I like Madison."

Here at Madison, we look forward to another year with Mr. George Felton as principal.

kong not king

The sophomores, now better acquainted with their school and more familiar with opportunities available to them, became increasingly involved in the goings-on of Madison. They especially found it easier to organize preparations for their class Homecoming Float. Their Float, portraying King Kong towering over a city skyline, was commended in the categories of outstanding durability, originality, and creativity. Many sophomores were surprised to find that after being recognized as best in three out of four categories, they did not even place in the overall competition. "Well," one sophomore commented, "there's always next year, right?"

This year, at long last, the sophomores will begin the classroom training for their anxiously awaited driving freedom. Through the required Driver's Ed. course, sophomores will receive the education needed to obtain their learners permit at the age of fifteen and eight months. They will learn about everything from the Internal Combustion Engine to dipsticks. After completing the classroom training, students then were taught safety through driving on the road and were acquainted with various driving situations. So, if you have ever had the thought, "When they get on the road, I get off," . . . here they come!

smart head start

This year, the sophomores proved to be the big fund raisers. While the other classes were loafing the summer away, the ambitious sophomores began their early money-making projects. Looking for some good clean fun, many eager sophomores participated in a successful car wash in which they earned one hundred and twenty-five dollars. Inspired by the great outcome of the carwash, they set out in their next endeavor—bake sales. Grocery shoppers were tempted by tenth grade bakers on several occasions in front of Magruders. With the start of the school year, Sophomores helped spread spirit through out the town and raise money at the same time by selling Warhawk bumper stickers. So, with the combined profits of the car washes, bake sales, and bumper stickers, the Class of '80 was definitely off on the right foot.

growing pains

The sophomores discovered that there were many changes when they entered their second year of high school. They found that being better acquainted with the school and no longer newcomers had both its good and bad points. For example, most teachers expected more from sophomores, ("I got lost" was no longer considered a valid excuse for being late) there was a greater emphasis on grades, and there were more and greater responsibilities. However, sophomores are eligible to participate in more clubs and activities, such as J.V. sports, and Pom Pons, which makes them feel more a part of the school. Since they knew people from last year, sophomores felt much more comfortable in their classes, the first few weeks of school. So, with the advantages and disadvantages present, the Class of '80 went through tenth grade as most of the sophomore classes do—looking forward to bigger and better things, but not knocking the fact they were not freshmen anymore.

sophomoric?

The following is an excerpt from Webster's Dictionary, copyrite 1959 by GPC Merriam Co. in the Phillipine Islands, p. 949: Soph·o·mor·ic / ˈsäf (ə) mȯric / adj. 1.: (from GK sophos wise-moros dull) foolish, stupid, exhibiting a firm and often aggressive conviction of knowledge and wisdom and unaware of limitations and lack of maturity.

This certainly doesn't apply to this year's sophomore class, does it? The following poll was taken regarding that question:

	YES	NO	Didn't know WHAT Was going on.
Freshmen	5%	10%	85%
Sophomores		100%
Juniors	100%
Seniors	200%

The 77-78 varsity basketball team was shown flashes of brilliance by many players. Their record was . The Varsity Warhawks found themselves in the realigned Great Falls District which has some strong teams. Although the team did not have its most successful season, the Varsity basketball team did supply numerous upsets. The team had four sophomores with Billy Yates and Cary McMichael coming through in many instances. There were 5 juniors with standouts Mark Merrell, Bruce Taylor, and Jon Cassello. The seniors were led by Bobby Brower, Larry Jones and Bob Bailey. With many young players returning, the 78-79 season looks promising.

b-ball is for girls varsity basketball

The girls varsity basketball team started its season with a Christmas tournament hosted by Edison High school. Placed in a tough district, the team set its strategy, quickness and speed, to make up for a height disadvantage. This strategy was lead by Ms. Pat Dean. She had the opportunity to coach such talent as: quick guard Kristi Jacobson (79); Susannah Creech (80), an agressive rebounder, captain Teri Oeschle (78), super frosh, Gerry Morin (81), and a good all around player, Carmel Keilty (80-capt.)

our fearless leaders?

The Student Government Association has gone through a vast change this year, mainly to allow a greater student participation throughout all aspects of the SGA. Along with the SGA officers and homeroom representatives, an SGA cabinet has been added. The cabinet consists of class officers, Student Advisory Council members, and designated students from each class. An Interclub Council was also reinstated to make the student government work more efficiently with the school's clubs.

Along with its traditional activities, the SGA began working with the curriculum and revised the JMHS constitution. The greatest emphasis of the SGA was to promote student involvement at Madison.

The American Field Service Club (A.F.S.) sponsors exchange students from foreign countries as well as students from other parts of the U. S. This year we are sponsoring two foreign exchange students: Alice Barouta from Greece and Mamar Mezidi from France. The AFS spends much of the year holding money raising activities such as bake sales, selling AFS discount and Christmas cards, etc. to help sponsor these and other exchange students. We also have an adult chapter of AFS, which does a great job in helping us organize the club.

We all hope Alice and Mamar enjoy their stay as much as we enjoyed having them here.

The International Relations Club participates in several Model United Nations during the school year. This year members went to Fairfax Invitational UN, North American UN, and the Model UN at Harvard University. At these Model United Nations members learn how the UN operates by representing various countries. They learn the policies of their assigned countries and work to further their countries position in the world. It is an interesting and educational experience in getting along with people and new ideas.

The Ecology Club, sponsored by Mr. Cacciapaglia, is in its third year at Madison. This year's objectives include a program to make the public more aware of their environment. This includes an annual trip to Woodlands, West Virginia and work on solving some of the area's water pollution problems.

spirit and service station...or was that team?

The purpose of SST is to promote school spirit and offer its services to the school. With approximately 80 members, representing all four classes, it got off to a successful start with the football season. Spirit ribbons were worn every week by students to show their spirit and support to the football team. With the regional games, the spirit ribbons grew to 2½ feet long. At the induction, pot-luck dinner, Cathi Cornils took the oath of President, First Vice-President was Stephanie Schultz, Second Vice-President was Leslie Davis, Secretary Jane Buckley, Treasurer Bruce Rook, Inter Club Council representative Bonnie Berger, Freshman representative Cindy Ell, Sophomore Representative Carrie Cornils, Junior Representative Debbie Barackman, and Senior representative Cathy Parsons. SST is open to all Madison boosters and hopes to help the school achieve a super spirit feeling by serving the Warhawks in the coming years.

This years SST members were: Sherilyn Acock, Kim Brockman, Jane Buckley, Carla Carrico, Cindy Ell, Lisa Frey, Pam Forbes, Sue Gerken, Laura Lloyd, Sharon LaFever, Billy Parsons, Cheryl Tweedie, Melissa Smith, Liz Utz, Christina Zobrak, Lisa Potts, Debra Hyatt, Mike Phillips, Tom Polera, Bruce Rook, Mike Snelgrove, Audrey Wenz, Edye Lowe, Sarah Bryant, Karri Freeman, Carmel Pellicciotto, Carrie Cornils, Kim Guthrie, Glen Mills, Leslie Nichols, Angie Lash, Misty Strain, Cindy Price, Cathy Lemanski, Pam Cornett, Shelly Coates, Jim Schifflett, Debbie Barackman, Bonnie Berger, Cathy Gee, Maureen Kehler, Cindy Hissam Sheila Stangler, Kathy Stewart, Carla Hundt, Keri Bennett, Leslie Davis, Nancie Rhea, Arrinder Sekhon, Debbie Simpson, Cindy Thornhill, Joan Giampa, Kim Poulton, Stephanie Schultz, Margaret Triola, Kim Vincent, Eileen McHale, Carol Appleby, Joan Bernard, Janice Cotter, Missy Farah, Jan Johnson, Kim Johnson, Jill Kibler, Cathi Cornils, Maureen Kane, Lisa Corn, Julie Lockner, Patty MacDougall, Jeannine Pak, Lisa Powers, Lynn Winston, Jeanette Butler, Jackie Dost.

This year's Heritage staff arranged the Literary/Art Magazine from artwork and literature submitted by Madison's talented students. Co-sponsored by H. P. Shaffer and Robert Mullin and Co-edited by Elise Howard and Nancy Valentine, the staff contributed much time and intellect toward the completion of these works.

Madison's newspaper staff, greatly enlarged this year, published the monthly Halk Talk from their offices in the publications room.

where did that scaleograph go?

When the editors of the 1977 Montpelier were first organized last spring, we decided that we were going to develop many new ideas and improve on the old ones. We wanted to make this year's book something special, something fantastic. Mr. Shaffer introduced a Photo Essay and we added spot color to the opening section. Seasons is the theme of our yearbook, which is divided into four sections, each dedicated to one particular season.

Using our imaginations, talents, and faith, we spent hundreds of hours publishing the yearbook. We had to totally commit ourselves to yearbooking, which meant missing parties, giving up weekends, and often working into the early morning hours.

The editors would like to thank all of these people who helped us throughout the year, and without whom, producing the book would have been nearly impossible. A very special thanks to our adviser, Mr. Shaffer, who spent endless hours taking last minute pictures, reading copy, and going over pages. He was always there speaking words of encouragement. The editors of the 1977-78 Montpelier hope that this is the best yearbook JMHS has ever had.

The Madison Forensics Team competes in monthly meets sponsored by the Northern Virginia Speech League and in the past years has acquired the number-one position in our area. Students compete in categories ranging from dramatic interpretation to prose and poetry reading to extemporaneous speaking. The team won the Sweepstakes Trophy many times during the year. Much thanks goes to Ms. Shannon Chastain for her gracious work as sponsor and co-ordinator of the Forensics team.

This year's Band was probably the finest in the history of the school. With the help of talented musicians and other directors from all over the East, Mr. Bianchi lead the Band to its first marching victory at the Mount Vernon Invitational last Fall. Other marching competitions included the Falls Church Invitational, The Robinson Spectacular, Mid-Atlantic Band Festival, and the Virginia Beach Classic in which the Band did exceptionally well. On stage, the Symphonic and Concert Bands received superior ratings at district festival and won Mid-Atlantic.

This year, group activities included a progressive dinner, countless hours of practice, and infinite parties enjoyed by all. The purpose of this band is not merely to play music or march for football games, but to educate the growing musician to realize the esthetic quality of sound in its most refined form.

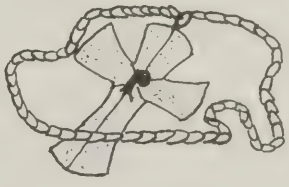
the gospel truth

The James Madison Bible Club meets on Wednesdays to study God's word (the Bible) to pray, to proclaim God's word, and to share in each others lives through the common bond of love in Jesus Christ. We believe that through Jesus Christ we can learn to live the way God desires us to live.

"And let us consider one another to provoke unto love and to good works. Not forsaking the assembling of ourselves together, as the manner of some is; by exhorting one another: and so much the more, as ye see the day approaching." Hebrews 10:24,25



gotta have art!

The members of the Art Club enjoy a variety of activities involving personal enrichment and service to the school. We meet weekly, learning new skills, expanding personal art knowledge, creating bulletin boards, and making signs and posters to improve the appearance of the school. We also take sketching trips and plan money-making projects. Our annual Valentine's Day flower sale is a lot of fun. A pleasant interplay of personalities makes for a good time had by all.

What's F.H.A.? That's us—the Future Homemakers of America. F.H.A. is not just a home ec. club, but rather a service club that helps each member grow and learn, while having fun. Our club won the "Outstanding Chapter" award for the fourth year in a row last year. F.H.A. sponsored the Red Cross Bloodmobile at Madison for the second time last year—proving even more successful than the first time. Another community effort this year was the sale of cookbooks to women in our local community. The initiation for new members this year included the "Haunted House". The ice cream social, the Christmas caroling party and the dinner at a local restaurant also helped contribute to the fun. The seventh annual Miss Madison Pageant proved successful, and a lot of fun. Patricia Walochik and Sarah Glaum are the sponsors.

The Spanish Club is for students who have an interest in Spanish culture. This years ideas include planning a trip to the Dominican Republic, donating funds to the Spanish Department to buy supplies, and teaching the children at Louise Archer some Spanish so they will develop an interest in taking Spanish later on. The club celebrated International Christmas Day with a party and they held their annual dinner at the end of the year.

During the 77-78 school year the Latin Club visited the National Gallery of Art, had a profitable bake sale, dined at the Marco Polo Restaurant, went ice-skating and held a Roman Banquet. The club is sponsored by Miss Sharrard.

the wise guys

The National Honor Society is composed of over 150 students at Madison, all of whom met the requirements for high qualities of character, leadership, and service. In addition to this members must have a 3.5 grade point average. Candlelight inductions are held in the fall and spring. The objectives of the National Honor Society are to provide a tutoring program for students here at Madison, and to encourage involvement in community and school affairs.

The English Team is comprised of three five-member squads, each of which competes against all other county teams. Meets are held in January and February; winning teams from each administrative area compete at a county meet in March. At each of the meets the teams solve various problems connected with the use of language. Sentence completion exercises, grammar and usage problems, scrambled sentences, and verbal analogies constitute the team's activities.

To become a member of the English Team, a student must rank among the top fifteen scores on a qualifying test administered to all students in the English honors program and to any other interested student. The sponsor this year is Mrs. Kirby.

The Junior Mathematics League is sponsored by the Fairfax Co. Assoc. of Teachers Of Mathematics, to further the study of mathematics, to identify mathematically talented students, and to provide competition to prepare students for the Superintendent's Awards Program. Membership is open to any high school student enrolled in Algebra I, Geometry, or Algebra II. The League Meets twice a month: once for practicing and coaching, and once for competition. This year 16 county high schools participated in the program. Our school sponsor this year is Mrs. Dorothy Thornton.

The Madison Math Team met bimonthly this year for meets at Madison in competition with about twenty other Fairfax County schools. With the help of sponser Mr. Nuttall, each team member increased his or her mathmatical problem-solving skills by attempting different problems dealing with the areas of algebra, geometry, probability, counting, and trigonometry. This year's performance didn't exactly place Madison in the top three, but the team surely wasn't in the bottom three either.

What seemed to fascinate team members was how the person who thought up the problems could come up with such unusual ones, such as finding out how a fly could get through a maze of sixty-three lines by crossing the least number of lines, as if anyone really cares. While anyone with a good comprehension of algebra and geomrtry could be on the team, the common utterance of "I never learned this" was heard many times.

The team members did have a good time on the team because the problems were a challenge—and that's what good mathematitians look for—challenges!

'79 does shine

Most of the new juniors looked forward to the year ahead with many mixed feelings. Many entered with a few anxieties because this was the year of the PSAT's, SAT's, and college preparation. Juniors hoping to continue their education knew that this year's grades played an important part in college admission, as well as future ambitions in various fields of work. In other words, this was the year to "get your act together." But of course, the year wasn't ALL work. Eleventh graders discovered many things worth looking forward to now that they were juniors. They found themselves involved in things that freshmen and sophomores were exempt from, such as National Honor Society, Madisonettes, Class ring eligibility, Prom preparations, and Varsity sports. So aside from those few anxieties that everyone is susceptible to now and then, the class of '79 found their junior year to be one of the best yet.

we shall return

Although the class of '79 did not take first place in float competition as they did the year before, they did manage a second place position for their fine effort in the construction of a creative, animated float. The float was a model of a flying saucer, complete with two green martians dressed in the Herndon football uniforms. The float, bearing the caption "Invade Herndon," was awarded the prize for best craftsmanship. Extremely pressed for time this year, the juniors felt they could have done an even better job, and are especially determined to take the first place prize again next year.

the dash for cash

The best things in life are free . . . but unfortunately, somehow the junior-senior prom didn't make the list, and this year's Junior class soon found that they needed to immediately start their fund-raising projects. As usual, the Juniors sponsored the annual magazine drive as its big money maker. This successful drive exceeded the profits of any previous year, and gave the Juniors a great start on fund-raising activities. The many prizes offered to anyone who sold subscriptions, inspired the enthusiastic participation of all the classes. A special thanks to Paul Newman and Robert Redford, who especially motivated the female population of Madison to sell two subscriptions each, in order to see their outstanding performance in "The Sting".

rings 'n things

Anxious juniors continued to crowd round the ring-order table for three days straight as they patiently awaited their turn to order that treasured class ring. After endless deliberation and debating over the many choices of stones, settings, crests, emblems, and engraving, most were satisfied with their final choice. Since the average price of a ring ranged from about $35 to $45, many hard-earned paychecks were spent in this investment. Everyone found that their money was well spent however, upon receiving the forever special keepsake at long last.

feared careers

Becoming a Junior means a lot more than just not being a sophomore any more. There are lots of things to think about, especially careers. Some students know exactly what they want to do, and others are trying to put off worrying about it for as long as possible. Since some don't really know what is available to them as a career, we have taken this poll of those who have already reached a conclusion about their future. Here are the results.

Podiatrist	4%
Professional Bum	49%
Chimney Sweep	3%
Politician	1%
P.H.D. in Dishwashing	10%
Underwater Basketweaver	5%
Airconditioner salesman in Alaska	10%
Edsel Dealer	2%
Teacher	0%
Professional Dropout	9%
Undecided (but not for long)	7%

In Loving Memory
Of
Michael Dow Waggoner
——
1960-1977

. . . Though it seems odd,
I still feel he is with us now,
For as I look into the hearts,
of my loved ones,
I feel his presence.
His eyes still glitter,
in the spirits of our beings,
His laugh still sounds in the ecstasy
of our joys, and his voice still echoes in the words spoken
from our mouths.
Yes, someone whom we love has left us,
but only in body,
For all that he was and is,
is still within our hearts today.
We'll never truly lose him,
For in our hearts,
we carry him with us, wherever we go.
His beauty is not marred,
His strength not weakened,
Or his power lessened.
In every beautiful, and living object,
He lives on . . .

–from "Someone Whom We Love",
written by Debra Martinson, first cousin.

Soccer, the most popular world-wide sport is just beginning to take root at Madison. The Girls Soccer team started three years ago, under the coaching of Mr. Weber, with a season of less than four games and just enough girls to form a team. This year Madison's team is scheduled to play games and is having full scale tryouts. You've come a long way baby!

With sixteen returning letter winners from last year's second place district team, Madisons' track team is lookin' goood! They will have plenty of time for improvement while participating in ten meets followed by Districts and Regionals.

A few of Madison's potential winners are Alice Potter, 880 yard run; Belinda Holmes, hurdles; Pam Swortzel, 440 yard dash; Kitty Dutch, shot and discus; and Gina Belk, in the high jump. Good Luck!

'78 spotlight

One of the best records earned by a coach at Madison is held by Ms. Patsy Dean. Through hard work and dedication she has done much to establish our reputable girls sports program. From November through February she's busy with basketball, after one weeks rest, it's time for softball, that continues through May. Members of the girls Varsity basketball and softball teams have high respect and admiration for her. One learns the importance of attitude, determination, and team work from Ms. Dean, knowledge that is useful throughout a lifetime.

My little town

When I look back on My Little Town,
I see a shadow.
As the darkened clouds in my mind begin to separate they open up into the light of a shaded old town with maple trees lined up and down the main roadway.
I begin to see cars, old cars, dated who knows when.
There are no shops, or sidewalks, or busses.
The traffic flows smoothly along in a relaxed motionless town full of small hopes and dreams

Spinning faster and faster
I start to slow down,
slower and slower
I stop,
at the time
when my little town doubles with population
and business is booming in all directions.
The road is more crowded now,
and the sky is turning paler.
I see new roads a coming heavy rush-hour traffic on and on
into what is now,
My Little Town of Turmoil.
Cars and more cars,
busses, diesels, trailors, and trucks,
business and more business
blooming everywhere.
The cycle speeds up,
the traffic closes in,
the lanes all blocked,
the lights all red.
The stores are packed with anxious purchasers,
and the parking lots twisting and turning with cars.
What was once My Little Town has become a small city, bursting with new business, crowded streets, and new residence

When I look back on My Little Town,
I can still remember
the once small and harmonious village,
but time took its course,
and My once Little Town has blossomed into the Big Business Blunder that it is today

Thoroughly enjoying his meal, Chris Osbo:ne takes time out to smile at t ıe camera.

In early October, the senior members of the National Honor Society enjoyed a potluck dinner in the school cafeteria. The organization, which selectively admits only juniors and seniors, had not yet accepted underclassmen, so the feast was held exclusively for seniors.

with a dash of potluck

At the head of the table sits Mrs. Mary Ardai, sponsor.

With each member bringing a dish, the food tables overflowed with everything from salads to desserts. Variety was in abundance, and the main courses even included pizza and quiche.

seniors do some decorating

The first week of school brought pencils and pens, as well as brushes and paint into the lives of many seniors who assisted in painting the senior lounge. This year the lounge serves as a distribution center of important senior information, and also as the social center of the graduating class. The lounge remains open throughout the day and is usually most active during the lunch hours.

During their last week of summer vacation, a group of active seniors armed themselves with brushes and gallons of school-colored paint to traditionally leave their mark on the school bleachers. Despite the sweltering heat, the determined group managed to complete the project, a proud "78", in time for the early opening of football season. During athletic events this painted section of the bleachers is usually occupied by students, particularly those who proudly proclaim, "S-E-N-I-O-R-S, seniors, seniors are the best!"

Take a Number, Please

Looking ahead to graduation, Jane Miller, Ann Harrison, and Dave Agard order their announcements.

Throughout the course of the year, the average senior may have lined up several times to buy or order a wide variety of "Senior necessities". Besides the annual subscriptions to the yearbook, the newspaper, and the literary magazine, seniors purchased cut-cards, graduation announcements, class jewelry, and caps and gowns. The senior lounge, which usually served as the site of the sales, continually bustled on these hectic days of filing, fitting, and filling out forms. There was, however, some relief in noticing that the capable class officers were assisting with the rapid exchange of money and receipts.

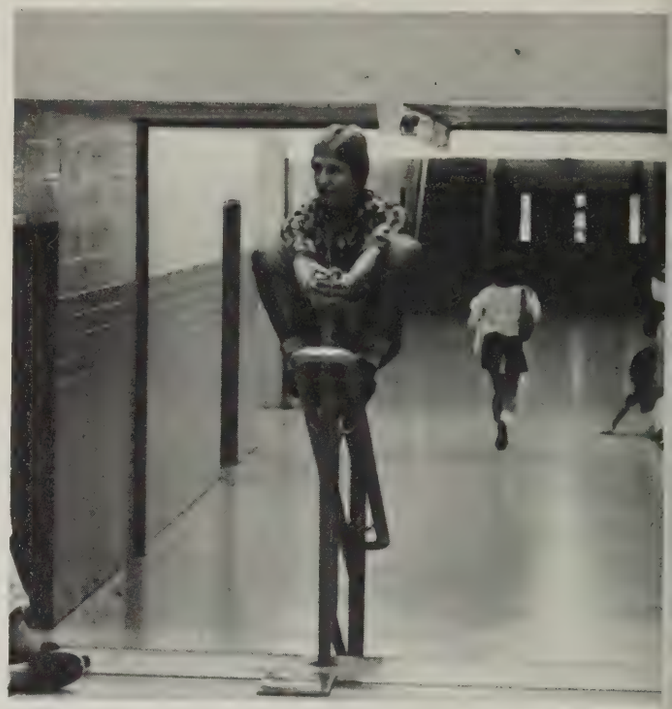
Never a Dull Moment

The class of '78 was constantly on the go during its final school year as the seniors participated in many events. At the occasional class meetings, seniors learned important facts about such things as the College Entrance Exams, college applications, and graduation. Opportunities to speak with college representatives were frequently announced, and all interested students were invited to attend. With the privileges granted by the senior cut-card, upperclassmen were allowed to take off one day per quarter, and often seniors went in groups to such places as the National Zoo, Great Falls Park, and downtown Washington. At the flash of this powerful cut-card, all underclassmen were forced to step back and allow the mighty seniors to preceed them in the lunch lines. The seniors also met on various other occasions to plan many of the remaining class activities, especially the infamous senior prank.



Brad Ricketts says, "Seniors can sit wherever they want to."

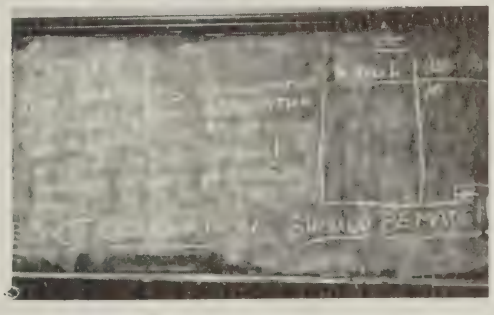
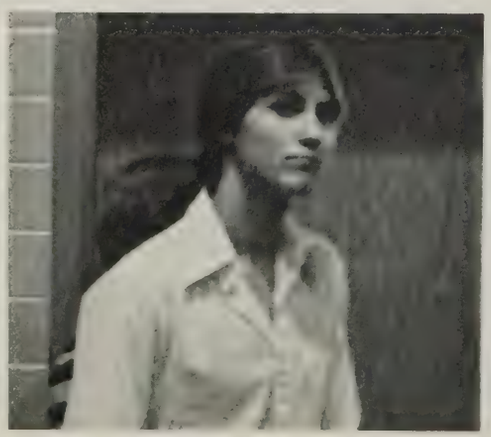
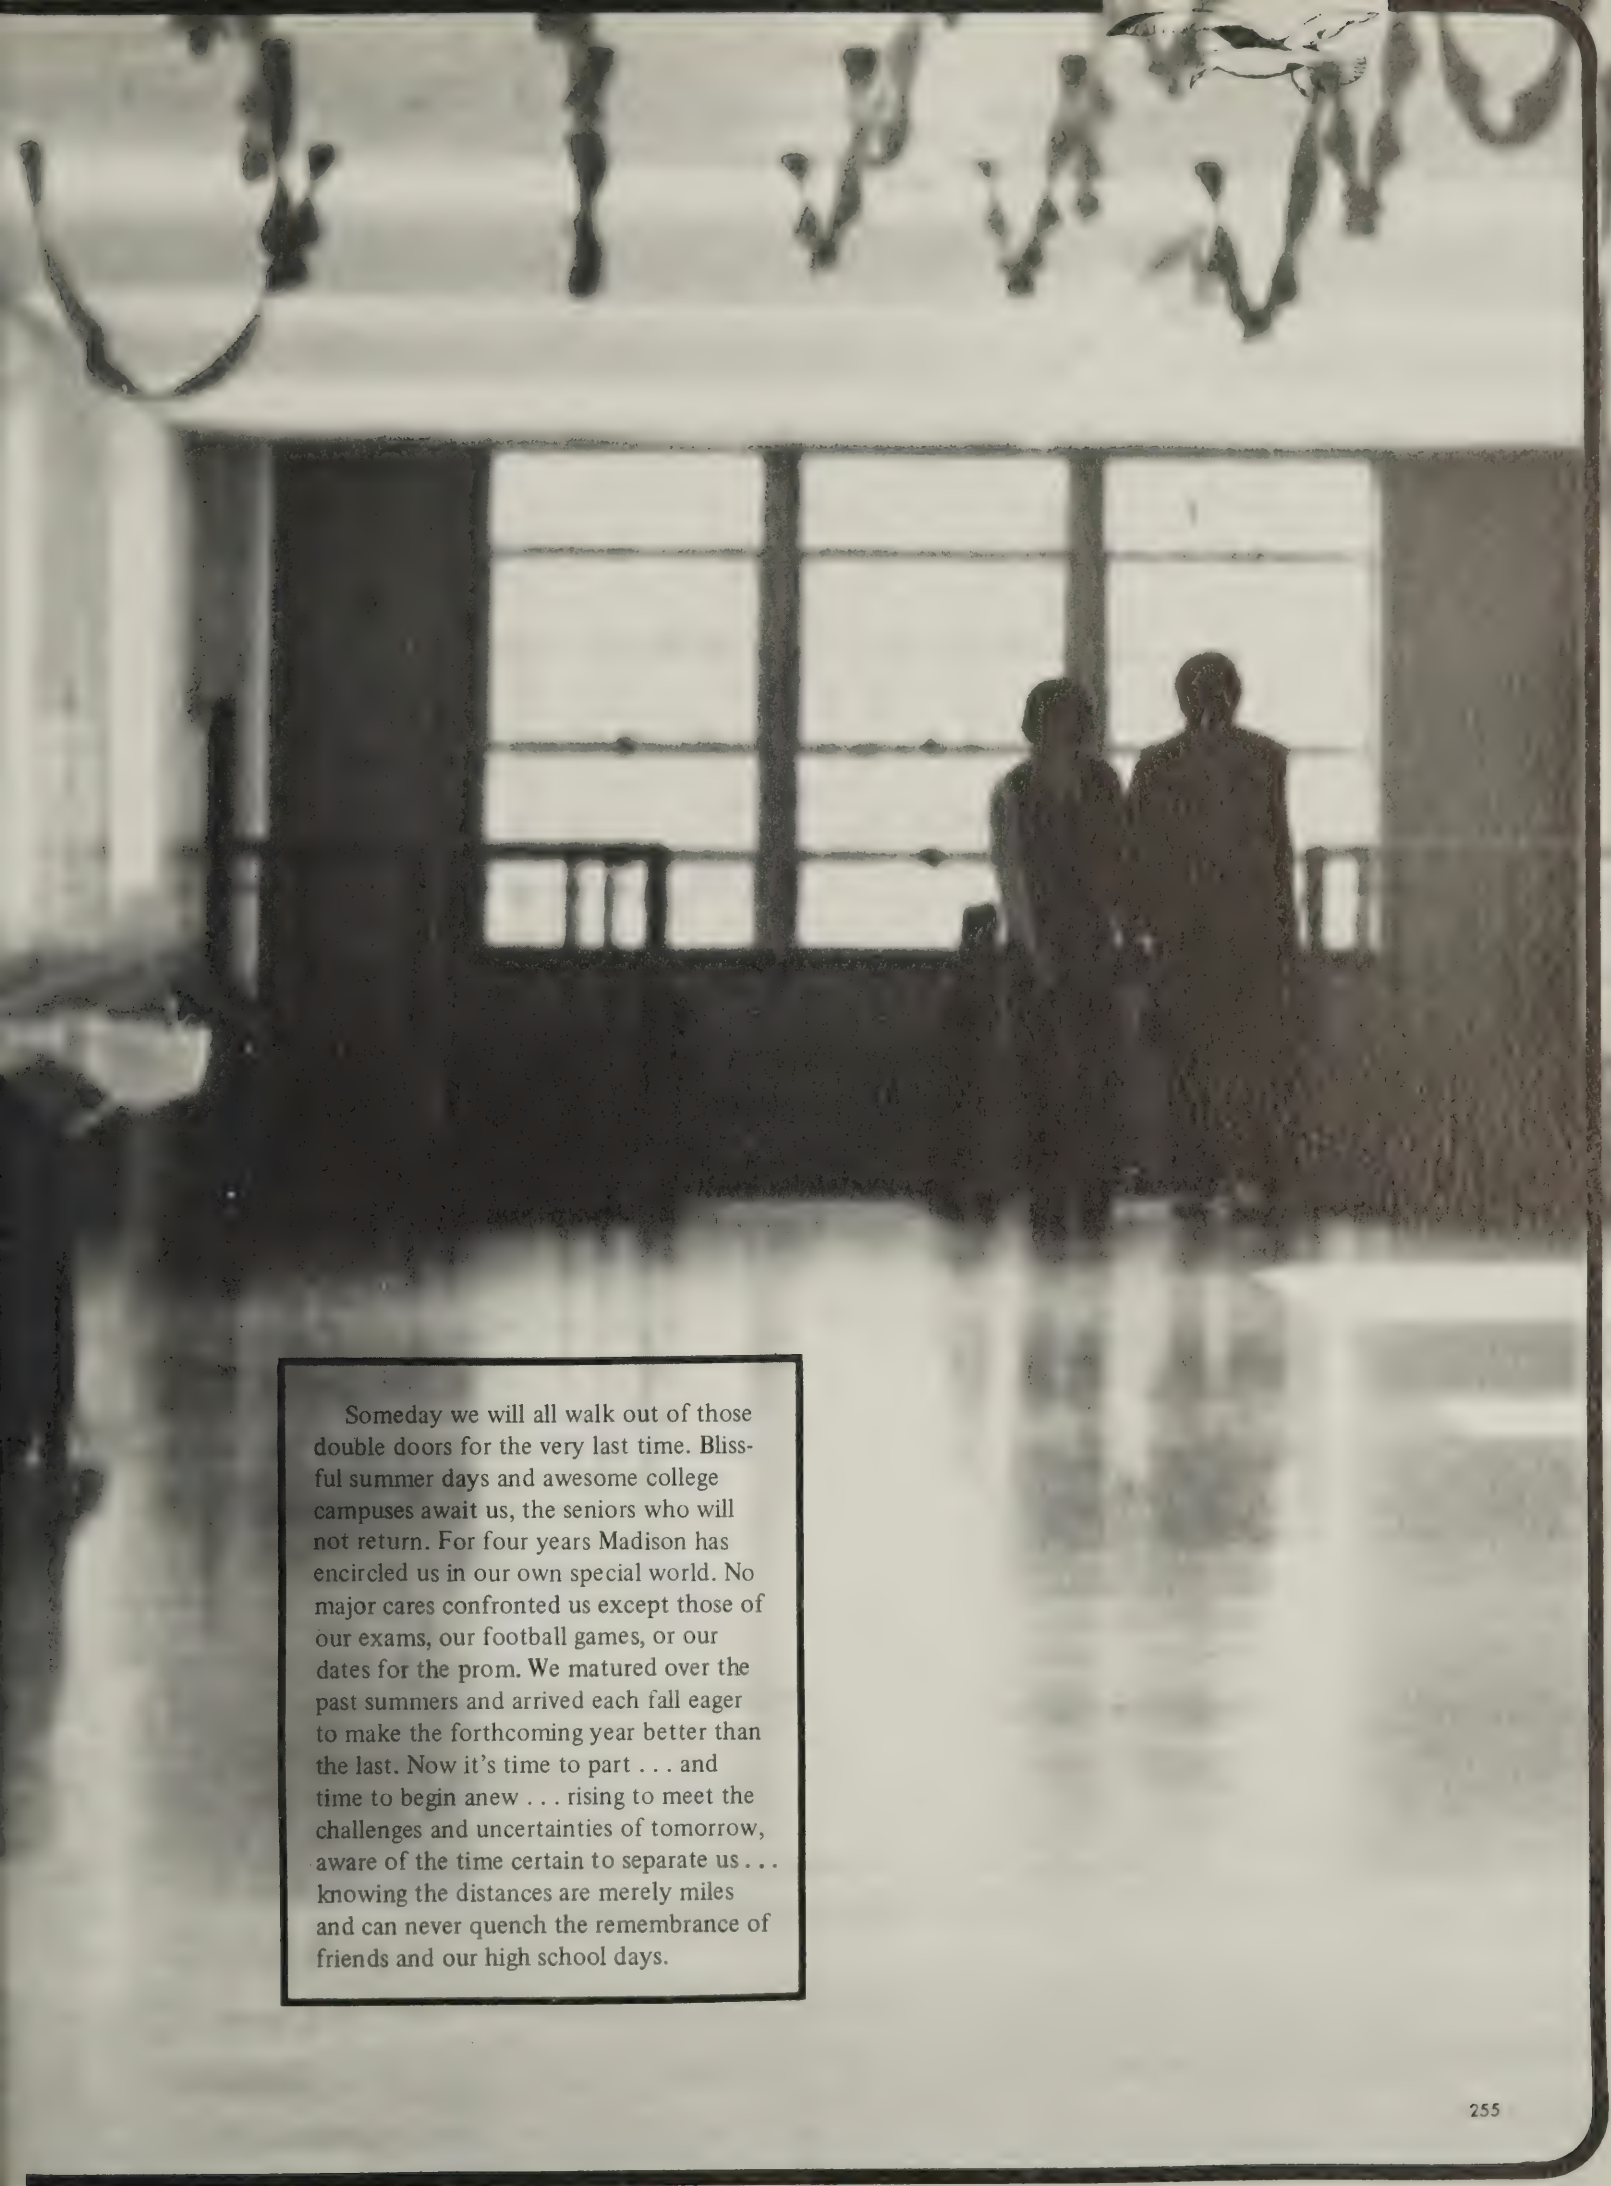
SENIOR CANDIDS



WE ARE THE CLASS OF 1978





Someday we will all walk out of those double doors for the very last time. Blissful summer days and awesome college campuses await us, the seniors who will not return. For four years Madison has encircled us in our own special world. No major cares confronted us except those of our exams, our football games, or our dates for the prom. We matured over the past summers and arrived each fall eager to make the forthcoming year better than the last. Now it's time to part . . . and time to begin anew . . . rising to meet the challenges and uncertainties of tomorrow, aware of the time certain to separate us . . . knowing the distances are merely miles and can never quench the remembrance of friends and our high school days.
